Our Story

Chef Lilian was born and raised in Benue State, the food basket of Nigeria. She later moved to Abuja, the capital of Nigeria and melting pot of the country where she was exposed to flavors and cooking styles from all over Nigeria.

In 2013, Lilian moved to the United States from Nigeria. Thousands of miles from home and with no familiar foods at local restaurants, Chef Lilian turned to the skills her mama taught her as a young girl growing up in the village of Okpoga in Nigeria, Naija Buka was created.

Naija Buka is a catering company / mobile restaurant. We prepare authentic Nigerian food using the freshest local produce and spices as well as key ingredients imported from Nigeria. We hope you enjoy the distinctive and savory flavors of Nigeria.

"YOU CAN'T MAKE EVERYONE HAPPY, YOU'RE NOT JOLLOF RICE."
